THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Wis 11:22-12:2: The Lord is the most. Everything else is insignificant; everything else depends on Him.

2 Thes 1:11-2:2: The Lord will come again. Do not be misled by false predictions; rather strive to be worthy of His call.

Lk 19:1-10: No one is so evil, so bad, that he cannot be saved. God's love will bring His forgiveness and reunite all who repent.

Today's Message - The Lord is full of mercy and compassion, slow to anger and of great kindness. He has come to search out and save what was lost. Let us be more concerned with doing the Lord's work than with idle speculation about when He will come again.

"There's Secretary's Day. And Grandparent's Day. And Bosses' Day... and today is Priesthood Sunday! The faithful throughout the Diocese thank God today for our Priests. Without them, we'd have no access to the sacraments that sustain us-reconciliation, anointing and, most importantly, the Holy Eucharist. Priests alone stand in the person of Jesus at the Last Supper as they consecrate the bread and wine to Our Lord's Body and Blood in the sacrifice of the Mass. Our Priests are comforters, counselors and companions. They laugh with us at weddings, cry with us at funerals, accompany us in life's struggles and are instruments of God's spiritual strength, encouraging us to pray for and to see God's wisdom through it all. Some are great homilists, others are great spiritual directors, some are outgoing, others are reserved. But they all share a deep love for Jesus Christ, the Church he founded, and the flock He's entrusted to their care. And for that, we're all immeasurably grateful! So be sure to thank and affirm our Priests, not just today but whenever you have the opportunity!"
