TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Dt 4:1-2, 6-8: Moses warns the people that they are not to add or subtract from the statutes and decrees of the Lord. God is looking after them directly.

Jas 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27: Everything worthwhile comes from God. Christians should welcome God's word, listen and act upon it.

Mk 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23: Jesus condemned lip service. It is wicked thoughts from the heart that really make a person impure.

Today's Message: Through observance of the Lord's commands, we shall experience the fullness of life. Living in conformity with God's will frees us from all casuistry about good and evil. We are called to welcome God's word and to let it take root in our hearts.

Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth with unwashed hands, and avoid close contact with people who are sick. Especially keep yourself in good health, good mood, good nutrition, and smile!

Covid 19 - It is now evident that this global health crisis could linger for months or years to come.

As previously announced, the bishops are reinstating the obligation to attend Mass in person on Sundays and holy days beginning on Sunday, Aug. 15, 2021. However, by longstanding Church law, this obligation does not apply to those who are:

- Sick
 - Have a serious health risk
 - In a household with those at risk
 - Primary caregivers to those at risk
 - Have serious anxiety or concerns about being in a large-group setting due to COVID-19
- Unable to attend Mass in person
As an act of charity, anyone who believes they might have COVID-19 or one of its variants should stay home.

While masks are not currently mandated, each parishioner is strongly encouraged to make a responsible decision about the use of masks and vaccinations following in the examples of all Pennsylvania Bishops, Pope Francis and Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI who have all been vaccinated for the common good.
